

Name: _____

Mastering the Interview

Complete the crossword below

Created on TheTeachersCorner.net Crossword Maker

Across

2. At the end of the interview, you may be asked by the interviewer, 'At this time, do you have any _____ for me?'
3. It's important to do your _____ on the college at which you are interviewing. Knowing the school and sharing WHY you want to attend there in particular will most certainly come up in the interview
5. Many colleges evaluate an interview highly in order to be considered for this special type of money offering for you to attend.
7. If a question stumps you or you're not sure of your answer right away, take a deep _____.
9. One of two standardized tests, of which you should know your scores by memory if asked in an interview.
10. (Two words) The type of note you should send post-interview to your interviewer.
12. 'Dress to _____'

Down

1. Student Council, Club Officer, Small Group Facilitator, and Peer Mentor are all examples of _____ experience.
4. In an interview, you may be asked about your _____ for college: how you hope to contribute to the college, what experience you hope to attain, etc.
6. Give a firm _____ when introducing yourself to the interviewer and before you leave.
8. A professional document that contains information and summaries about your work experience, academic accomplishments, volunteer projects, etc.
11. A number you should know the most updated version of. This number quantifies your grades in high school.