2023 MSBA Graduates

Grove City College graduated its largest class of Master of Science in Business Analytics (MSBA) degree candidates on May 20, marking the growth of the College's graduate degree programs.

"We're very proud of our academically strong and highly professional adult learners and cohorts. In the past year, more than half have achieved promotions or landed dream roles while working toward their master's degree," Dr. Christy Crute, director of Graduate & Online Programs, said.
